PREAMBLE

MISSION STATEMENT

Class Councils, as a representative body, strives to serve and unite Texas A&M University and to enhance traditions for the continual improvement of the Aggie Community.

ARTICLE I. CLASS COUNCILS

SECTION I. The name of this organization shall be Class Councils, hereinafter referred to as Class Councils. Class Councils adopts the Mission Statement, as stated in the Preamble, as a framework for Class Councils’ mission and purpose.

SECTION II. Class Councils is comprised of the elected Class President, selected officers, and selected members of each of the current freshmen, sophomore, junior, and senior classes of Texas A&M University. The aforementioned groups comprise each individual Class Council.

SECTION III. Any program, event, or meeting that pertains to all four individual Class Councils are hereinafter referred to as “All Council.”

SECTION IV. Each current Class President, the Executive Director, and the Assistant Executive Director (as voting members in matters concerning All Council), and advisors (as non-voting members) of Class Councils will make up the Executive Team, hereinafter referred to as Executive Team. For Student Activities purposes, the Executive Director holds position of Chief Student Leader, and the Assistant Executive Director holds position of Treasurer of Class Councils Executive Team. For Student Activities purposes, each Class President holds position of Chief Student Leader, and selected Treasurer holds position of Treasurer for each individual Class Council.

SECTION V. The class officers and directors of Class Councils will make up the Director Staff hereinafter referred to as Director.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of Class Councils at Texas A&M University will be to promote unity within and between the classes, maintain traditions, provide leadership development to each of its members and raise funds for a Class Gift to be given to the University at the conclusion of each class’ senior year.
ARTICLE III. GENERAL MEMBERSHIP

SECTION I. ELIGIBILITY

a. All undergraduate students of Texas A&M University are members of a class by virtue of their matriculation.

b. The classification of the members will be determined by the class year in which the student was admitted into Texas A&M. Classifications are not determined by the number of hours a student has successfully completed, with the exception of transfer students.

c. With regards to transfer students only, the University Registrar will determine their classification.

d. Any full-time undergraduate student in good standing with Texas A&M University may run for the office of President, apply for a class officer position, or apply to general membership, subject to the qualifications and selection procedures outlined in this Constitution.

e. Exceptions to full-time status can be made, by the approval of the advisor and the Executive Team, for situations in which students are participating in co-enrollment programs, study abroad programs, or an internship. Other exceptions may be made for students who do not need full-time status to graduate on time, for illness, or for other extenuating circumstances.

f. All members must maintain at least a 2.0 cumulative GPR, and have received a 2.0 GPR during the preceding academic semester after having completed at least one semester at Texas A&M.

g. The officers of this organization must meet the following requirements:

(a) Have a minimum cumulative and semester grade point ratio (GPR) as stated below and meet that minimum cumulative and semester GPR in the semester immediately prior to the election/appointment, the semester of election/appointment and semesters during the term of office.

1. For undergraduate students, the minimum cumulative and semester GPR is 2.00. In order for this provision to be met, at least six hours (half-time credits) must have been taken for the semester under consideration. In one limited circumstance, summer semester hours may be applied to this provision. In order for summer coursework to qualify toward a grade point ratio prior to election/appointment, at least six credit hours must have been taken during the course of either the full or two summer session(s).
2. For graduate level students the minimum cumulative and semester GPR is 3.00 and for first professional students the minimum cumulative and semester GPR is 2.50. In order for this provision to be met, at least four hours (half-time credits) must have been taken for the semester under consideration. In one limited circumstance, summer semester hours may be applied to this provision. In order for summer coursework to qualify toward a grade point ratio prior to election/appointment, at least four credit hours must have been taken during the course of either the full or two summer session(s) unless fewer credits are required as they complete the final stages of their degree.

(b) Be in good standing with the university and enrolled:

1. at least half time (six or more credit hours), if an undergraduate student (unless fewer credits are required to graduate in the spring and fall semesters) during the term of office. Students enrolled in co-enrollment programs are also eligible to hold an office, as long as the student is meeting all applicable co-enrollment requirements and is in good standing with the program.

2. at least half time (four or more credits), if a graduate level student (unless fewer credits are required in the final stages of their degree as defined by the Continuous Registration Requirement) during their term of office.

(c) Be ineligible to hold an office should the student fail to maintain the requirements as prescribed in (a) and (b)

SECTION II. SELECTION OF CLASS COUNCILS MEMBERS

a. Class Councils members will be selected by Class Officers of their respective classes by a formal application and interview process.

b. Upon reapplication for members who wish to continue in Class Councils for the following academic year, the option to interview re-applicants is at the discretion of the current Class Officer team.

c. Freshman Council members will be selected with adherence to the governing documents of the Freshman Leadership Advisory Council (FLAC).

SECTION III. REMOVAL OF CLASS COUNCILS MEMBERS

a. Class Council Members may be removed from Class Councils for reasons which may include, but are not limited to: failure to adhere to code of ethics, failure to achieve point requirements, excessive absences, or failure to meet GPR requirements. Eligibility based on above requirements will be reviewed on a semester basis. A general member may recommend another member for removal if he/she notices the member has failed to adhere to the requirements of the position.

b. Members subject to removal will be notified in writing by the Class Vice President a minimum of three (3) business days before the last day of classes, as determined by the Registrar. The charges/deficiencies, which represent the basis for consideration for removal, will be outlined in the letter of notification.

a. If the removal is due to grades that do not meet the GPR requirement, the individual will be notified by the advisor. Removal for failure to maintain the GPR requirement will be facilitated by the advisor. The Department of Student Activities will externally handle appeals regarding grades below the university minimum.

c. The candidate for removal will be allowed to submit a written appeal on his/her behalf within five (5) business days of notification from Vice President. Appeal validity is subject to discretion of the Officer Team.

d. If Class Officer Team deems appeal invalid, a meeting must occur between Class Officers and the candidate before the last day of finals as a court of last resort for membership in Class Councils.

e. Removal will require a majority vote of the Class Officers of that class with the tiebreaker going to the vote of the Class President.

f. Class Councils Advisors will participate as non-voting members throughout the member removal process.

g. In the event of extreme circumstances, as deemed by the Class Councils Advisor, immediate removal without an appeal process is subject to discretion of Class Officer Team and Class Councils Advisor.

SECTION IV. REAPPLICATION OF MEMBERS

The continuation of membership in Class Councils will be done through each Classes respective reapplication process. The guidelines created will serve as an Expectation of Membership for the following academic year and serve as a checklist for the Class Officers during reapplication.

a. Each Class Officer Team will create guidelines for reapplication by the mid semester grades due date as determined by the University Registrar.
b. The Class Officer Team will present the approved guidelines to members of the class.
c. All members of the class are expected to adhere to these guidelines.
d. Members failing to do so will be referred to his/her Class Officer team for potential removal.
